

SANTA ARRANGES SCHEDULE SO HE CAN VISIT DIXON

Accepts Invitation of Dixon Merchants To Him by Radio

He's coming! Yes — Santa Claus has accepted the invitation forwarded to him yesterday from short-wave radio station WJUN, operated by Lewis L. Wilhelm of 104 Dixon avenue.

Santa's reply, received early this morning, was contained in the following radiogram from the North Pole:

"Dear Kiddies:
"It certainly was nice to receive your radiogram invitation to visit Dixon, and after examining my books, I find that I will be able to pay you a special visit before Christmas Eve. I am leaving here tomorrow, and will be in Dixon at 9 o'clock on Friday morning, Nov. 29.

"I am surely glad you wanted me to come, and you can expect me to be there on time. Although it is impossible for me to visit all of the towns from which I have received invitations, I could not help but say yes to your request, as I have discovered in my records that you kiddies in Dixon and surrounding territory have been very good during the past year. So I am coming to see you. Gather in your Christmas want-lists, and we will all have a great big party. Won't that be fun?

To Ascertain Wants
"There are so many things that little boys and girls like that it takes a big variety of toys and gifts to fill the lists I receive from my little friends every year. In fact there are so many new things being ordered, that it is nearly impossible for me to get them all completed in my toy factory before Christmas. However, this early visit to your town will be a good way for me to find out what each one of you would like to have, and then I am sure I will not have to disappoint you on Christmas Eve.

"Of course I am driving my reindeer, and perhaps I will bring some members of my North Pole crew. They are all extremely busy here at Toyland, packing the sleigh, and tomorrow we expect to set out for your town in the beautiful Rock river valley. I will try to send you another letter in a day or so, at which time I should be well on my way south.

"Your friend,
"Santa Claus".
There it is, boys and girls. Our good friend is really going to pay us a visit. Be sure to remember the day, Friday, Nov. 29, at 9 o'clock in the morning. Mark this date on your calendar and remind mamma and daddy that you want to be in Dixon to see Santa Claus. Make certain, too, to read The Telegraph closely each night as we will no doubt have special delivery airmail letters from Santa as his reindeer bring him closer and closer to Dixon.

More New Deal Workers May Get Civil Service

Washington, Nov. 20—(AP)—The Rumspeck bill permitting the president to bring about 200,000 more federal employees under civil service was sent to the White House today with congressional approval.

After many delays, the senate and the house completed action yesterday by accepting a compromise draft written by a joint committee. The house, which rejected an earlier compromise a month ago, voted 206 to 139 for the revised measure. The senate did not take a roll call.

Under the bill, the president could give civil service status to workers in more than a score of independent government agencies, most of which have outgrown the New Deal. Among them are the R.F.C., P.W.A., C.C.C., A.A.A., N.Y.A. and HOLC.

The employees would have to pass non-competitive examinations and meet physical requirements.

Two Men Sentenced for Robbing Wife of Under-Secretary of the Navy

New York, Nov. 20—(AP)—Two men were sentenced to long terms in Sing Sing prison today for robbing socially prominent Mrs. James V. Forrestal, wife of the under-secretary of the navy, of $75,000 worth of jewelry in July, 1937.

Joseph Weiss, 26, a second offender, was sentenced to 30 to 60 years, and Michael Lomars, 29, to 10 to 20 years.

They were accused at their trial of participating in a ring charged with stealing more than $1,000,000 worth of jewelry, mostly from night club patrons.

Dorothy Sturatt, 34, named in testimony as the "finger woman" for the gang, was convicted with the two men, but will not be sentenced until it is determined whether she is a second offender.

Disagreement

Washington, Nov. 20—(AP)—They're unanimous on the giving thanks part of it and they agree pretty generally on the turkey and all the trimmings, but the 48 United States found themselves disagreeing amiably today on just the proper date for Thanksgiving.

Thirty-two states and the District of Columbia will follow the lead of President Roosevelt and take a holiday tomorrow.

Sixteen others, including all New England, home of the first American Thanksgiving feasts, will wait until their usual last Thursday in November.

In addition to the six New England states, the November 28 date will be observed in four states in the midwest—Kansas, Iowa, South Dakota and Oklahoma; four in the south—Arkansas, Florida, North Carolina and Tennessee; and in Pennsylvania and Nevada.

Sixteen Injured in Crash East of Mendota Last Eve

Sixteen persons were injured, one seriously, in a collision between a Burlington railways bus and a truck on route 34 about three miles east of Mendota last night.

Fifteen passengers and the bus driver, B. W. Brooks, 30, of Chicago, were taken to the Harris hospital in Mendota. Only Brooks was injured seriously, the others suffering mostly cuts and bruises. Doctors feared they might need to amputate one of the driver's legs and said he was suffering from possible internal injuries.

State Highway Policeman Raymond Schmehr said that the accident occurred when the bus crashed into the rear end of a livestock truck parked on the highway.

The truck driver, Robert Johnston, 21, Sherrard, Ill., told authorities that he had parked to replace a burned out fuse. Johnston was uninjured.

Flare Extinguished
Schmehr said the trucker told him he had placed a flare behind his vehicle but that it went out while he was making repairs.

Johnston was taken before Justice of the Peace Ray McInturf at Mendota and fined $5 and costs for illegal parking.

The injured passengers were Harold Codling, 32, Lester Foote, 31, and Roland Codling, 21, all of Pontiac, Mich.; Samuel Provenzano, 28, of Chicago; Ray Martin, 34, Rochester, Mich.; Theodore Storni, 31, Red Lodge, Mont.; Ray Walter, 29, Chicago; Harry H. Dickson, 77, Aurora; G. M. Sowers, 46, Van Orin, Mrs. M. A. Johnson, 37, Chicago; Mrs. F. E. Parsons, and four-year-old daughter, Susanne, Naperville; A. L. Milligan, 53, Detroit; Jack Farmer, 19, Grant, Neb.; and Walter M. Jackson, 22, Norwalk, Conn.

On 'Toot' Today

Chicago, Nov. 20—(AP)—The Milwaukee railroad went on a "Toot-o-toot" today at a "birthday" anniversary celebration. It was just 90 years ago today that the Milwaukee's first passenger train made the five-mile run from Milwaukee to Wauwatosa, Wis., and in observance of the event officials ordered that locomotive and shop whistles along the road's 11,000-mile system be tooted, at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Proclamation

Complying with many requests The Telegraph herewith prints President Roosevelt's 1940 Thanksgiving Day proclamation:

I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, president of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-first day of November, 1940, to be observed nationally as a day of thanksgiving.

In a year which has seen calamity and sorrow fall upon many peoples elsewhere in the world may we give thanks for our preservation.

On the same day, in the same hour, let us pray:

"Almighty God, Who hast given us this good land for our heritage; we humbly beseech Thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of Thy favor and glad to do Thy will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning and pure manners.

"Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues.

"Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom in Thy name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that, through obedience to Thy law, we may show forth Thy praise among the nations of the earth.

"In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness and in the day of trouble, suffer not our trust in Thee to fail; amen.

CONGRESS KEPT IN SESSION BY VOTE OF HOUSE

Leadership Threatened by Surprising Poll of Representatives

Washington, Nov. 20—(AP)—The decisive House defeat of an attempt at adjournment gave the controversial Logan-Walter bill today its long-deferred chance for prompt Senate consideration.

Administration leaders, who predict a presidential veto for the measure, were hopeful it would die in committee at the close of the 76th Congress, but the House destroyed that hope yesterday when it voted 191 to 148 against ending the current session and going home.

As a result, when the Senate took a two-day Thanksgiving recess yesterday, it had a motion to consider the Logan-Walter bill as the pending business it will take up on reconvening Friday. Opponents conceded there were enough votes to force consideration. The legislation has the announced purpose of facilitating appeals from decisions of quasi-judicial Federal agencies.

House defeat of the adjournment resolution gave the Senate no choice but to stay in session, for under the Constitution neither chamber may adjourn or recess for longer than three days without the consent of the other.

The margin by which adjournment was defeated surprised both those who advocated going home and those opposed. The 144 members of the Republican minority voted solidly against the resolution, and they were supported by 44 Democrats, two Progressives and one American Labor.

Leadership Threatened

Although President Roosevelt said at his press conference yesterday that result of the vote made no difference to him, it did represent a definite defeat for Democratic House leaders in the first post-election test. They advocated adjournment. On the other hand, Republican legislators had been urged by Wendell Willkie to vote against ending the session.

Shortly after defeat of the adjournment resolution, the House voted to adjourn until Friday.

Infantry Band to Play at Carnival

The 129th Infantry band of Mt. Morris, Captain Howard Bronson conducting, will open the "Company A Welfare fund" carnival at the new Dixon Armory on the evening of Dec. 9th, it was announced today. The executive committee composed of Harry Beard, Grover Wilhelm, Walter Knack and Captain Gus Wimpelberg met last evening to arrange the program of special features to be presented each evening during the week of Dec. 9-14.

On the opening evening, a parade headed by the 129th Infantry band will form at Ottawa avenue and First street and march to the Armory. Members of Company A, Dixon Post, No. 12, American Legion; the Legion drum and bugle corps and the drum and bugle corps of Boy Scout troop, No. 89, will participate in the parade.

Early next week Messrs. Beard, Wilhelm and Knack will go to Chicago to complete arrangements for the six night carnival program. The response in the form of cash donations as well as gifts of necessary equipment has been most gratifying. All of the proceeds from the carnival are to be used in the purchase of equipment and supplies in Dixon before the company departs, about the first of the year, for Camp Peay, Tenn., for one year's peace time army maneuvers.

AAA Corn Loan Is Fixed at 61 Cents per Bushel Today

Washington, Nov. 20—(AP)—Midwestern corn farmers who cooperated with this year's Agricultural Adjustment Administration control program were assured a return of at least 61 cents a bushel for their grain today.

The agricultural department announced that it would lend such farmers that amount on corn stored under seal on the farm or in commercial elevators or warehouses.

The loan, officials explained, was designed to maintain a floor under producer prices. They said if it were not for the loan program, existing surpluses would depress prices far below current levels. On November 15 the national average farm price of corn was estimated by the department at 56.9 cents a bushel.

The 1940 loan rate is four cents higher than that under the 1939 program. Farmers obtained loans on about 302,000,000 bushels of 1939 corn.

Much Old Corn on Hand
The new program was announced at a time when approximately 445,000,000 bushels of old corn were either stored under government loans or belonged to the government as a result of foreclosure on overdue and unpaid loans.

The 61-cent rate will apply in the "commercial" corn area—599 major corn-producing counties in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, South Dakota and Wisconsin. Outside this area, the rate will be 46 cents for yellow or white corn and 44 cents for corn grading "mixed". In the commercial area, the rate on mixed grain will be 59 cents.

Under the 1939 crop control law, the government may make loans only to farmers who planted within acreage allotments apportioned among them by the A.A.A.

Hungary Joins Axis as Britain Takes Terrible Punishment from Planes

The War Today!

(This daily feature, conducted by Dr. Witt MacKenzie, is being written by Fred Vanderschmidt while MacKenzie is taking a brief vacation.)

The "new order" which Hitler is painstakingly constructing in southeastern Europe opens up an entirely new phase in the new science of subjugation.

Hungary, inducted today with a thunder of drums into the Berlin-Rome-Tokyo alliance, becomes the model. The other stepping stones in Germany's pathway to the Near East: Rumania, Bulgaria—and, most important, Turkey—are expected to get successively in step. Greece, because she resisted Italy, may simply be crushed.

The alliance itself and its "one for all and all for one" terms are largely window dressing, in so far as Hitler's real design is concerned.

The real importance of the method is this: Germany believes she has found a way to get these small nations to pull their own weight in the Nazi war to annihilate England by making them into protectorates, and avoiding altogether the expense, ruin and drain of invasion, military occupation and maintenance.

Vast Nazi armies eat their heads off from Norway's rocky northern tip to the beaches of Brittany. German boots stamp on the cobblestones from Warsaw to Brest. There are beaten, desperate people to be watched, fed, imprisoned.

But in the southeast, on his way to Syria, Palestine and Suez, Hitler means to avoid all that. The states that join his alliance not only will pledge their loyal political and economic and military cooperation with the axis in return for military protection; they will supply money, food, supplies and even men, and keep themselves in strict order. They will have little chance to conceal anything from their overlords, for the terms of the Berlin-Rome-Tokyo alliance provide for "joint" technical commissions to implement the treaty.

As is the case of today's alliance, "representatives" of Hungary will be called in for commission conferences. Called in! It does not require much imagination to see how such a commission can become in fact the government of the small "ally". Hungary is important, of

Common Grave

Coventry, England, Nov. 20—(AP)—While anti-aircraft guns barked at a lone German raider over this bomb-devastated city, 172 of some 300 persons killed in last Thursday's overnight attack were buried today in a common grave in the red clay of Coventry cemetery.

Two Spitfires finally chased the raider from the vicinity of the burial ground as hundreds of mourners for those killed by others of his kind in a single night of horror laid wreaths along the 200-foot long trench dug for the flag-decked coffins.

Our Thanks

Dear Father in Heaven, we do thank Thee today For food in a world of strife, For the Christ who said, "Come unto Me," For I am the Bread of Life.

We thank Thee for clothing, Dear Lord Above, But more for the promise true, That "If God so clothe the grass of the field, Shall He not much more clothe you?"

We're grateful for homes and loved ones so dear, For the gift of bounteous lands, But we're promised a place in our Father's mansions, "A house not made with hands."

We praise Thee for friends who are tried and true, But for Jesus more than all others, For He has said, "Lo, I'm with you always."

"A friend that sticketh closer than a brother." We're thankful for peace in a war torn world, (Protect us and guide us we pray.)

For "the peace of God which passeth all understanding," For "peace through Christ," always.

We thank Thee for life in a beautiful world, But by far, we're most thankful today For Christ Jesus the "resurrection and life."

"The Life, the Truth, and the Way."

Birmingham Bombed at Rate of Over One Every Minute

(By The Associated Press)

Hungary joined the Berlin-Rome-Tokyo axis today, giving Adolf Hitler a military corridor stretching 250 miles deeper into southeast Europe—toward Greece, Turkey and the Suez canal.

Within a few hours after the signing of the new pact, sources close to the Turkish government said Turkey would regard passage of German troops through Bulgaria as harmful to Turkish interests.

These sources said Turkey would refuse to approve such a movement of Nazi troops into southeast Europe, and warned that if Bulgaria herself made any move toward the Mediterranean, Turkey would feel bound to "take measures".

The official Turkish radio has previously announced that 2,000,000 Turkish bayonets would oppose any axis thrust in the direction of Turkey.

Bound to Alliance

The protocol, signed in Hitler's presence in Vienna, binds Hungary to the original triple alliance sealed September 27, in Berlin, pledging Germany, Italy and Japan to mutual aid against any new entrant in either the European or Chinese wars.

At that time, the pact was said to be aimed at keeping the United States from an open declaration of war at Britain's side against the snow-balling totalitarian bloc.

In statistical terms, the entry of Hungary into the axis-proclaimed "new order" in Europe added 57,520 square miles and a population of about 12,000,000, mostly of Magyar origin. Army experts have estimated Hungary has 500,000 men under arms.

A curious sidelight of Hungary's entrance into the so-called "coalition" of Europe against Britain was that it was swiftly and officially made public.

By Way of Contrast
By contrast, previous conversations held either by Hitler or his axis partner, Benito Mussolini, with leaders of Rumania, Bulgaria, France and Russia—presumably for the same purpose—have been attended by strict official silence.

Germany's Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop asserted in Vienna today, however, that other powers shortly would join the alliance.

As axis diplomats signed Hungary into a more or less puppet partnership, Britons read in their morning newspapers of still another devastating smash by German night raiders against the industrial midlands—a nine-hour assault on the "queen" city of Birmingham and 13 other cities and towns.

Hitler's high command said 500 Nazi planes stormed the midlands belt with more than 1,000,000 pounds of bombs, setting "far-visible conflagrations and explosions even more extensive than during the raid on Coventry."

England's second-largest city, Birmingham has 1,000,000 inhabitants.

Over One a Minute
The Nazi raiders, roaring across the channel from bases in Holland, Belgium and France, dive-bombed Birmingham at a rate of more than one-a-minute. British feared the toll of killed and maimed was high as the German bombers, dropping first flares, then incendiaries to start fires and light the way for a hail of explosives, attacked hour after hour despite a thunderous anti-aircraft barrage.

This morning Birmingham presented a fire-blackened picture of ruin, while in nearby Coventry the bodies of 172 to 300 victims killed in last Thursday's town-smashing assault were buried in a common grave.

Anti-aircraft guns blasted at a lone Nazi raider circling over the city as the bodies were lowered into a 200-foot trench, and two R.A.F. Spitfires finally chased the German away.

British bombers carried out a night attack on Berlin, the London air ministry reported, and the Germans acknowledged two raids on their capital but asserted that dropping a number of incendiary "each time only one plane succeeded in flying over the city and explosive bombs."

"Hospitals, clinics and several apartment houses were struck," the Nazis said. "The resulting roof fires were quickly extinguished."

Liverpool was attacked three times overnight and widespread other targets were hit by the German raiders, but London was said to have had little damage and few casualties.

Greeks Gain New Ground
The Greek high command reported today that determined bayonet charges and hand-to-hand fighting had gained the Greeks new ground in their counter-

GEORGE WASHINGTON SAID:

"Excessive partiality for one foreign nation and excessive dislike of another cause those whom they actuate to see danger only on one side, and serve to veil and even second the arts of influence on the other. Real patriotism who may resist the intrigues of the favorite are liable to become suspected and opposed, while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people to surrender their interests." From the Farewell Address.

We Are Lucky—Let's Be Thankful

Americans are the luckiest people in the world.
If they were anything but devoutly and humbly thankful this Thanksgiving Day, they would be the most ungrateful people in the world.We are at peace—and thus we have been granted the most precious boon granted to any people in these days.We live in a plentiful continent stuffed with all the good things of material life.

We have freedom; we have hope.

Of all people in the world who should give humble thanks for their blessings, we should be foremost.We are at peace—but that is no great credit to our superior policies or even our superior goodwill. Other countries have as earnestly sought and worked for peace, have had as great good-will, but peace was snatched from them.We live amid plenty. That this plenty is not available to all is a matter for our shame. But the opportunity has been given us. Plenty is ours. That we have not had the wit or the will to distribute it that all might share is certainly no fault but our own.We have freedom. Our forefathers won it for us with blood and tears. It comes to us today through no special merit of our own. Whether we shall keep it and extend it—that will be the test of our merit. But it is given us today without regard to our effort or merit.Surely a people so blessed can do no less than to take a day of solemn thought to consider how it may become more nearly worthy of this bounty.More than 300 years ago a tiny band of Pilgrims on the Rocky New England coast saw their straggling crop wither in drought. They visioned another "starving time" such as they had looked upon before, when loved ones weakened and died before their eyes for lack of a little corn. Then came rain.

The crop was saved. And for this simple bounty they declared a day of Thanksgiving.This is the day which we, who have been a thousand times more favored, are to observe once again. May we render these thanks with something of the humility and devotion that moved the Pilgrims, kneeling amid their ragged cornstalks at Plymouth.One pound of U-235 would have the explosive force of 15,000 tons of TNT—enough to flatten England—and Hitler has his boys working on it. Isn't science wonderful!NEWS BEHIND
THE NEWS
By PAUL MALLON(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc., reproduction in whole or part strictly prohibited).Washington, Nov. 20.—Some wrinkles developed on the under-side of that destroyers-for-bases deal with Britain. They delayed the construction of the eight Atlantic defensive positions.Tight-lipped officers and diplomats here have refused to talk at all, but it was learned the navy department drew up a suggested form for the 99-year leases some weeks ago. These were passed on up through the war and state departments, bearing American signatures.After that the British scratched their chins for a while before coming through. They wanted the bases constructed to their own specifications. Specifically they insisted that the hangars be of British design. As the American war department is to patrol the bases and the navy is to occupy them, both insisted upon their specifications.Then London objected to the plan of American army engineers to import heavy trucks and similar equipment into Bermuda in violation of the local statute against heavy vehicles.A third puzzling problem developed concerning the acquisition of private land within the areas designated. Difficulty arose in arranging for its purchase, lease or condemnation.All this inspired considerable impatience in certain official quarters here. It was recalled that some British authorities were not enthusiastic at first in offering the bases. The deal was specifically restricted so that two of the bases were outright gifts (Newfoundland and Bermuda). The other six were considered within the barter.Some of the differences were compromised, and the other wrinkles no doubt will be smoothed out.Appeasement is a dirty word these days but a number of disappointed government people are using it to describe the tender efforts of the administration to keep Russia happy.One by one, American tankers have been released for charter to the Russians under authority of the Maritime Commission. About ten have been chartered by Stalin in the past few months for shipment of low octane gasoline to Vladivostok. Probably no more than 700,000 barrels have thus been shipped to date. The last available figures to the end of September showed 559,000 barrels transported that far this year.The Reds are desperately in need of gasoline for shipping on their east coast. This is 6,000 miles by water from their wells in the Ural mountains. The shipments therefore are a great concession to them. It is the understanding here that it has enabled them to release some of their western stored gasoline to the Swedes, who also are cooperating by lending them quite a few Swedish tankers. As far as is known here the deal has been of no assistance to Hitler, although both Russian and some German war planes can fly on low octane fuel.Self-criticism is nevertheless arising within the administration and the appeasement policy may be altered or dropped.The administration's political planners got together without advertisement last Thursday night to talk over the peculiar behavior of the Republicans since election.
Determination of Wilkie to keep alive the principles of opposition he enunciated during the campaign naturally is perplexing those who are charting the administration course.While it is dangerous to attempt to relate on the basis of second hand reports, the decisions that were made, these following suggestions seem logical and sensible.The administration will keep an eye on Wilkie and his eastern campaign manager, Roger Pryor, during their Florida vacation. Action from this end may not develop as swiftly as otherwise would have been possible. Some efforts may be made to require the Republicans to show more precisely the hand they propose to play in the future.

Precedent From Cornell Incident

By BILL BONI

New York, Nov. 20.—(AP)— Anxious that revision of the Cornell-Dartmouth score should not establish a precedent which could become "harmful to the sport, its players and its officials," Commissioner Asa Bushnell of the Eastern Intercollegiate Football association emphasized today the unique circumstances under which the "fifth down" mixup at Hanover occurred.Bushnell pointed out that only when an official reverses his decision on the last play of game is it possible to accept such a reversal and permit it to change the score."In any sport such as football," his statement read in part, "where the game unfolds in a consecutive series of inter-related and interdependent plays, it is manifestly impossible to alter any one of these plays without affecting and perhaps altering every one of them which follow x x x thus the Dartmouth-Cornell game provided the one case in a million in which change could be made without establishing a dangerous precedent, for in it the error which proved decisive came on a scoring play which also was the very last play the final period."

Praises Officials

Bushnell praised football officials and the high standards of their work, then added that they "do, however, make occasional mistakes, and they are bound to continue to do so in the future.
If, when such errors occur as inevitably they must, there are demands that decisions and results be set aside, as was done in the 1940 Dartmouth-Cornell game, then a unique example will be so misused as to become a precedent harmful to the sport, its players and its officials.""If, on the other hand, sight is not lost of the extraordinary circumstances surrounding that particular game and its transformation from victory for one side into victory for the other, then there will be no misinterpretation of standards for the conduct and administration of football competition, x x x."

Many Complaints

Bushnell said he had not received any notable volume of complaints over officials being too efficient, although that is the chief criticism this corner has heard as an outgrowth of the Cornell-Dar-mouth incident.One prominent eastern coach pointed out there never would have been any confusion over the number of downs, if Referee "Red" Friesell had taken time to consult with Dartmouth Captain Lou Young when the latter protested that Cornell was being given an extra down.

More Power to Thrift—more Thrift from PowerMOST people would be willing to spend a little extra for what Buick has to offer—style, size, room, steadiness, durability—if part of that extra could be paid back through lower operating costs.Especially they would like really satisfying performance—quick take-fast response—if they could have it in a car that's stingy with gasoline.That's what we've given them—through the extra power in this 1941 Buick.The added wallop of FIREBALL engine lets us use more thrifty gear ratios, saving money without complicating extra gears or mechanisms.

THE GIRL WITH A CRUTCH

CHAPTER III

THE man across the table from Andre was scowling."A fool you make of yourself," he was saying, "and fortunate for you is the change in plan.""What do you mean?" Andre asked."I got your card. That much was all right, the information. But you would have been called here anyway. An—what is it you call yourself? Andre Girardeau, hah!" Andre's lips tightened. He hadn't come to Washington to be insulted, and yet he was helpless here."After all, Herr Girardeau, if you will, you are to do exactly as you are told. Must I explain what I mean? No. I speak not for myself, you know that. Now at home you were always a soft mark for the women, and here in America you make a name for yourself with the first pretty woman you contact. Do you fancy that is approved?"

"Listen, I—"

"No. You listen. You. Now, you can never work high if you let your attraction for women rule you. Herr—uh—Girardeau, and the newspapers have been picturing you and writing about you and—"Andre interrupted. "I was not making a fool of myself. I told you the way to get at the father was through the girl. It is he who owns the new bomb sight, remember."

"Ah, the bomb sight!"

"EXACTLY! Already I have seen every inch of the big factory here, and soon I could be intimate with the man himself.

Even if I married the girl, it would be good cover.""If you marry you will never live to be a good husband for long—remember that! But enough; there is work ahead. You go at once to Pueblo, New Mexico.""But that's where the girl is!"
Andre looked squarely at the other man, a squat, pompous one of middle age."Right. And the father. And the new bomb sight. What better region than a barren desert, to do bombing tests? Eh? We are not asleep, Herr Girardeau. You can go ahead and follow up your heart interest, impersonally. But not too far, mind you. If you are not satisfied—" The man shrugged.

"Do you need any money?"

"I must live amid wealth."

"Right. Here is a wallet with $20,000 in it. There is no lack of money if the goal is attained, just as there is no question—yet—of your loyalty, but—"Andre nodded, frowning in impatience. He detected this man who was his superior here. "What am I to do now?""Here is a map. They spread a picture of North America and the short man began measuring with a pencil. "You can see that, by good fortune, Pueblo, NewA young man was helping her from the car. "Ah, Senorita Montoya, may I help you?"Andre stared at the girl, and at her crutch, as she hobbled past.Mexico, is at a strategic advantage. The principal border towns such as Brownsville and El Paso, Texas, Nogales and Tia Juana, are in virtual barricade. But where the international line runs through the open desert land—there, this dot is Pueblo, and there is theuniversity too, where the Bailey girl goes. There also do you go."

"All right."

"See, it is just this far to Tampico, and here is Guaymas on the Mexican west coast, and Mazatlan."

"I see."

"That's all, now. You go direct to Pueblo, contact our operative there and get further orders. Here is a ring set with a chrysocolla stone. Wear it for identification.
And the other operative there will be feigning a sprained ankle and walking with one crutch.""A crutch," echoed Andre, nodding."Right. Your ingenuity will then arrange a meeting."WHEN the conference was ended and Andre had attended to his banking errand, he reserved a place on the next air transport west. There was time before the take off to telephone New York and have his luggage forwarded.The air trip was interesting until nightfall, and then because there was no stimulating passengers with whom he might converse, he retired early. Dawn found him in Hachita, New Mexico, waiting for the little side-trip train that would take him to the quaint village of Pueblo and its "Dude College." By 1 p. m. he was on the college campus itself.From the moment he got to Pueblo he was alert for the man

Dixon Will Pause to Observe Thanksgiving Holiday

Festive Dinner Tables Await Many Dixonites

Family Parties and Cheery Firesides to Attract Numerous Groups Tomorrow

It looks very much as if no one would be traveling by sleigh "through the white and drifting snow" to join Thanksgiving family reunion parties on Thursday; but no matter the weather (and no matter the date), the parties will be held as Dixon families pause tomorrow for their annual celebration of the holiday—a strictly American custom which dates back 320 years to the Pilgrim fathers, Plymouth rock, and 1621.

King Turkey, indicated by tradition as appropriate for Thanksgiving Day meals, will reign supreme on laden tables, as family circles are reclaimed from the rush of modern life for a quiet day together.

Among the college students who will be home tomorrow is Ayres Davies, a senior at Beloit college, who will arrive from Beloit, Wis. in the morning. Arriving during the weekend for a belated holiday visit will be Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newcomer (Anne Davies), and Miss Mary Davies of Chicago, who will be visiting Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Rogers and the F. X. Newcomers.

The John Culeys of 703 East Third street have planned Thanksgiving dinner for Mr. Culey's mother, aunt and cousin, Mrs. A. B. Culey, Miss Bernice Clark, and Miss Janet Boogher, all of Chicago.

Mrs. John Gould Ralston is planning to go east next week to celebrate Connecticut's decreed Thanksgiving day, the 28th, with her two daughters, Lucile and Joan, who are attending Ethel Walker's school for girls in Simsbury, Conn.

A family gathering at the George B. Fluhr home on East Boyd street will include the couple's son, daughter-in-law and grandsons, the junior George Fluhrs and their young sons, Kuhlman, 9, and David, two, of Bay City, Mich., and Mrs. Etta Kuhlman of Bay City, mother of Mrs. George Fluhr, Jr. The Michigan visitors will be returning north Sunday, after a week's visit in Dixon.

At "Shore Acres," the Lyle Prescotts and their little daughter, Sally, will be entertaining at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. George Prescott and Mrs. Kate Bryan.

The A. A. Rowlands of 206 Dement avenue were heading toward Omaha, Neb. today to join their son and daughter-in-law, the Charles Rowlands, for Thanksgiving. Mr. Rowland plans to remain in Omaha for some time, but Mr. Rowland expects to return to Dixon within a few days.

Last week, the Rowlands were entertaining the R. J. Millers and their son Ernest of Sheboygan, Wis. Ernest, Mrs. Rowland's nephew, has accepted a position as instructor in the meteorologi-and Mrs. William Bardwell in Barrington.

Arriving from Evansville, Wis. in the morning to spend Thanksgiving with Dixon relatives will be Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Ames and Miss Blanche Crow, who will be guests of the E. M. Goodells and Mrs. Goodsell's mother, Mrs. Thomas Ames. Dr. Ames is Mrs. Ames' son.

At "Whitthorne," Dr. and Mrs. Z. W. Moss will be entertaining Mr. and Mrs. John Stager and daughter of Sterling, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Murray, Mrs. C. J. Rosbrook, and Miss Bertha Heeger.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McGowan and sons Robert and Blair will be arriving from Muskegon, Mich. tomorrow for a holiday visit with Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Martin and Mrs. M. McGowan.

The E. V. Mellotts and their son and daughter, Bob and Glenyce Ellyn, plan to motor to Cedar Rapids, Iowa tomorrow to visit until Friday with Mrs. Mellott's mother, Mrs. D. E. Miller. Other guests in Mrs. Miller's party will be her son and daughter-in-law, the U. J. Millers and their young son, Richard, of Des Moines.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nichols, Mrs. Harry Fleming and son Stephen have been invited to the home of Miss Josephine Nichols for Thanksgiving dinner tomorrow.

Mrs. Wilbur Hart left today for DeKalb to spend Thanksgiving with her sister. Her daughter, Jeanne, who attends Northwestern university in Evanston, will be the holiday guest of her grandmother in Crown Point, Ind.

LINCOLN SCHOOL RECEIVES PAINTING OF SMITH SCHOOL FROM MISS LUCIA DEMENT

A Thanksgiving assembly program at the Lincoln grade school this afternoon found students of the school and their teachers gratefully accepting the gift of a painting by a Dixon woman who is one of the most talented and civic-minded residents the city has ever known. The canvas is of the former E. C. Smith school, as seen through the eyes of Miss Lucia W. Dement, who refers to her gift as: "A birthday gift to the children and teachers of the Lincoln school of Dixon from a little girl grown tall, who on Nov. 16, 1869, was born on your side of the tracks in 'Dement-town'."

On the back of the frame, Miss Dement has written: "Before this sketch was finished, wreckers were on the roof." In a recent letter, dated Memphis, Tenn., where Miss Dement has moved for an indefinite stay with a sister, the donor of the painting commented: "I could not see the old Smith school go without some record, so I painted it from my window the day the wreckers appeared." The school, located on Seventh street, was razed about a year ago.

In addition to the school painting, Miss Dement has also presented the Lincoln school with hundreds of reproductions of famous pictures, collected while she was serving as instructor of fine arts education in teachers college at Columbia university, and many designs for posters and craft work. All have been filed in the school library and art room.

Raymond Hood, an eighth grade student in Miss Esther Barton's room, accepted Miss Dement's generous gift in behalf of the school. Miss Nina Walrad's first grade and Donald Clark's seventh grade arranged the program, which was presented at 1:15 o'clock.

Miss Dement, who resided in the Overstreet apartments on Galena avenue before going south, was director of fine arts at Horace Mann school in Chicago before going to Columbia. She has devoted many years to mastering her art and has assembled an unusual collection, which she has always shared generously with her townspeople.

NACHUSA CIRCLE

THANKSGIVING EVE SPECIAL

Before the boys become too loaded down with Thanksgiving turkey, they will compete tonight in the much-heralded foot race at the high school athletic field where the lads who work along First street will romp for a pot of gold. Twelve contestants are entered for the event and A. C. Bowers, of the high school, will be the official starter. Louis Salzman, organizer of the event, has asked the participants to report between 5:30 and 6:00 o'clock at the field. All winners will be admitted free and the welcome mat is out. Late entries in the romp will also be accepted.

WEEK END VISITOR

"Carp" Huber, the "old left-hander" of local baseball fame years ago—and one of the best in northern Illinois—was a week end visitor in Dixon, returning to Chicago, his present home, Tuesday. His address is 11,852 South Michigan avenue.

WILD HARE COMES TO TOWN

"Bones" Carlson, famed for his summer fish stories, comes up with a winter yarn which matches Paul Bunyan's tales. Oscar reports that he followed a rabbit down the turnpike of Galena avenue early yesterday morning as it darted past the United Cigar, two restaurants and up to the post office—doubtless to mail a letter to the FBI. "Bones" claims to have two witnesses.

CRIBBAGE WITH A CAPITAL C

Captain Charles Kelly and his Franklin Grove cribbage team, John Vogt, Fred Gross and Douglas Stultz, grabbed another victory from the city hall quarter last evening by a score of 12 to 15. Chief Sam Cramer and City Clerk Wayne Smith took four straight from Vogt and Gross to save off a threatened thorough drubbing, while Captain Dave Kelly and Joe Miller played even against their two China township opponents.

DE MOLAY BOWLERS

With scores of 145-179-224 Hoyte led the DeMolay bowlers in the second week of bowling at the Dixon Recreation last night. Boys who rolled the first games of their careers last week, continued to show promise and many improved considerably. Scores for the games were as follows: Newman 115-160-146; Hawker 130-126-167; Knack 140-187-158; Hoyte 145-179-224; Reynolds 96-126-119; Shuck 144-147-195; Bush 102; McNamera 116-146-135; Ommen 104-105-98; Frazer 70-87-128; Shaw 77-102-105; Hoon 97-127-137; Ferger 99-127-142; Coakley 89-107-104; Buchanan 143-116-131; Dorland 57-76-95; Travis 152-70; Sanborn 84-114; Auman 99.

BROTHER ACT

The Carlson brothers will roll the Dixon Recreation All Stars in a bowling match here Thanksgiving (tomorrow, you know) at 2:30 o'clock. The special attraction will present the Carlson quintet composed of Oscar, Gus and George of Dixon, Al of Morris and Art of Peru. This event should attract a large gallery.

IF WISHES WERE HORSES

... then beggars would ride. From Wisconsin comes the news (which is somewhat heartening in the face of tremendous odds) that regardless of the score of Saturday's battle with the Minnesota champions, the horde from the northland will achieve an undefeated season only at the cost of a finish fight. The Minnesota-Wisconsin game has the tang (exaggerated, of course) of a Sterling-Dixon contest and anything may happen. George Bakula will captain the Badgers in the season's final game. Taken as a whole, it is said that the Wisconsin team will be in its best shape of the year Saturday and Stuhldreher will probably depend on the same lineup which did most of the work against Indiana.

NEW MANAGER

Charles Roundy, successful coach and manager of the Knacks independent basketball team, has resigned and his duties have been taken over by B. F. Cummings. Several out of town games have already been lined up for the local club and among them is an excursion to Davenport, Ia. on December 22 where they will play the Central Rockets of that city.

Wildcats' Game With Irish Saturday Expected to Be Another Close Battle

By Tom Siler

Evanston, Ill., Nov. 20.—(AP)—It's been a long time between football victories for Northwestern in the Wildcats' ancient rivalry with the Fighting Gaels of Notre Dame. The Irish and Purple have been meeting off and on since 1889, but in 19 games over that span Northwestern has won just twice. Notre Dame was the victor 15 times and two games ended in scoreless ties. But most of the games, especially in recent years, have been exceedingly close and Saturday's encounter before a capacity crowd of 48,500 in Dwyer stadium should be no exception. Both will be trying to bounce back from defeats a week ago.

Despite losses to Minnesota and Michigan the Wildcats are slight favorites to whip the Irish, who looked so good early in the season only to bog down against Army and Navy and fall against an alert Iowa eleven.

Ollie Hahnstein, Northwestern's sophomore flash of 1938 who faded badly in 1939, again is moving along under full steam and is expected to lead the Purple attack. While the Irish are watching him the Wildcats will be keeping a wary eye on fast Steve Juzwik and his deceptive partner, Bob Saggau, a potent passing and running combination.

At Peak Strength Both teams are expected to be at peak strength. Although winning five of seven

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 20.—(AP)

—Nothing official yet, ladies and gentlemen, but here is the bowl line-up to date—Stanford vs. Texas as Aggies at Pasadena; Boston College vs. Tennessee at New Orleans. (Now you just wait and see.) One of the terms of Jimmy Wilson's contract with the Cubs is that he will coach at third base. From what we hear, the All-America pickers are having their troubles deciding between Hapes and Hovious of Mississippi U. Tommy Harmon of Michigan is a cinch to get the Heisman memorial trophy for the year's outstanding gridder.

THE ALL-AMERICA

The Augustana College (S. D.) nominates for its All-America: Kant of Fordham, Ize of Brown, Heel of Oxford, Bowl of Rice, Swamps of Georgia, Bell of St. Mary's, Bunch of Tufts, Shake of De Pauw, Opportunity of Knox, Oodles of Duke and Tuba of Colgate. ... you win, boys.

Did you know that Frank McCormick, voted the most valuable player in the National League, cost the Reds only 100 smackers? (Get Larry McPhail to tell you the story.) Now, whom do you suppose that master magician, Mike Jacobs, will dig up to face Joe Louis in Detroit? It wouldn't be good old Gus Dorazio, would it?

Today's GUEST Star.

Bob French, Toledo Blade: "While the guessing is good, we would like to hazard the prediction that the next eastern college to de-emphasize football will be Cornell. ... The Big Red loses heavily by graduation this year and the tip is out that no undue efforts will be made to replace this year's stars."

Spirit of the Press

Nashville, Tennessee: Cornell leaned over backwards in its decision in refusing to accept a victory it apparently had won. It established a precedent that is certain to cause much bickering in the future and may even result in the breaking up of traditional football feuds. St. Louis Post-Dispatch: Alva Bradley's crack that Roger Peckinpah will have an absolutely free hand probably will be high among the belly laughs of the year. ... Kansas City Star: You just gotta give it to Iowa as the great Notre Dame deflator. Those Hakeyes know how it's done.

Hall of Fame.

This corner nominates: Paul Brown, coach of the Massillon (Ohio) Highs. ... They have won 32 in a row, knocking off high schools and colleges alike. ... A letter addressed "Paul Brown, Ohio" would reach him.

The automobile industry uses 75 per cent of America's annual consumption of plate glass, or some 117,725,000 square feet.

On Guard, Michigan!

Charley Maag will be constant threat to Michigan when Ohio State gets within place-kicking range. John Hallabrin holds ball.

Sunset and Evening Star,
And one clear call for me,
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

Such tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound or foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep, turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell
And after that the dark,
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

For tho' from out our bourne of time and space
The flood may hear me far,
I hope to see my pilot face to face,
When I have crossed the bar.

Willkie, Republican presidential candidate, was addressing a Madison Square Garden rally.

A loaded revolver was found in his possession then, and detectives said a later search disclosed two more at his residence. The charge was automatically dismissed because the grand jury failed to indict. Evidence showed that the guns were old and rusty.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking extreme acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with stinging and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. The quick happy relief will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.
